

Church Rental Policy & Fund Raising Events

The church building and grounds is intended for the worship of God and the study of his word. Therefore, it should be used only in a way that honors and glorifies God through worship, service, or Christian fellowship. The Minister is in charge of the church as he has been appointed to serve and supervise the activities in these facilities. It shall be cleared through the Pastor, when any function is to take place in the church other than regularly scheduled programs. All functions other than regularly scheduled events must be scheduled through the church secretary.

Acceptable functions for use of church grounds include worship, church meetings, youth gatherings, young adult gatherings, Christian music events, weddings, funerals, devotionals, Christian fellowship, reunions, birthday parties, anniversaries, and other events approved by the church council.

Specifically excluded from acceptable use are events that promote political advancement of a specific candidate, party, or issue. Additionally, events that do not reflect or promote traditional core Christian values will be excluded.

The following groups or events will have priority in the order listed when scheduling church functions:

1. Traditional events (church sponsored)
2. Other church activities
3. Church Members
4. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts
5. Non-Members

The following fee will be charged for the use of the church:

	Sanctuary	Education Building & Fellowship Hall
MEMBER	No Charge	No Charge
NON-MEMBER	$200	$100

Consideration may be given for fee exemption for activities that promote Christian fellowship and the advancement of God's word into the community.*

Fund raising events given fee exemption are requested to tithe 10% to the church if the event is not a church sponsored mission or event.*

A fee may be assessed for damages or cleaning as required.*

Church Rules

1. All activities, behavior, conduct, and action should reflect high Christian value. Simply, we should honor God with respect to His property.
2. Building and grounds should be left in the same condition in which it was received. Facilities must be cleaned and all trash must be removed from the premises.
3. Heating and air settings should be returned to original settings, lights turned off, and doors locked.
4. Youth recreational activity is encouraged and promoted. In the interest of safety, helmets shall be worn when riding bicycles, skate boards, and skates on church property. No riding may be conducted on steps, ramps, sidewalks or indoors. Activity is participated in at the risk of the individual.
5. All persons should promote, encourage, and create a safe environment for children.
6. No posters, signs, or other objects can be nailed, glued, taped, stapled, or affixed to walls and ceilings in a manner that causes damage.
